Not to be confused with Mario Puzo's other family, this story is about deceit, corruption, the quest for power under Pope Alexander. It is historical fiction of the Borgia family and its a very fast moving interesting story with a cast of historical figures. It was Puzo's last work and was finished by his cowriter/editor, female friend.

The Family is the belated fruit of Mario Puzo's life-long obsession with the Borgias, whom the creator of Don Corleone saw as just another family whose family business happened to involve killing people. He never got round to writing the book until his last months, when he was old and tired and made some unfortunate artistic decisions.
